

CITY CLUB SELECTS ARCHITECT-ADVISER

With the announcement of the selection of an advisory architect to assist the City Club's building committee in planning of the proposed $1,000,000 club house, members of the club now anxiously are awaiting the start step in the building program—the presentation of the competitive plans and the selection of the winner of the competition.

The building committee, of which James Sharp is chairman and Oscar Therap secretary, has selected Frank E. Wallis, a prominent New York architect, to assist the committee in an advisory capacity. Mr. Wallis has accepted the invitation. He will be in Washington in time for the formal presentation of the competitive plans. Mr. Wallis will hold numerous conferences with the committee immediately upon his arrival. After the work has been fully outlined and the winner of the competition is carefully instructed as to what is wanted, he will return to New York, but he will keep in constant touch with the committee and will return to Washington from time to time for additional conferences.

The plans of the five competing architects will be formally received by the committee at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, November 7, at the club house. The competing architects are A. P. Clark, Jr., Marsh & Peter, Milburn, Heister & Co., Frederick B. Pyle, and Waddy B. Wood.

The committee will go over the plans carefully with Mr. Wallis, but it is probable that the winner of the competition will not be announced for at least several days after the plans are received, as detailed consideration will have to be given them.

The building committee has invited the 1,500 members of the club to send to it any suggestions that might be used in planning the club house.

The site of the $1,000,000 club house has been marked by the building committee with a sign fifty feet long and ten feet high. The sign, which was erected late yesterday afternoon, reads in letters several feet high:

"This property, Nos. 1210 to 1220 G street, has been acquired by the City Club of Washington. Upon this site, containing 12,200 square feet, will soon be erected the ten-story home of the City Club."

"Our intentions regarding peace remain the same as when the Baku mission arrived. We are ready to make peace at any moment, provided military operations are stopped immediately and the blockade is lifted. We have not imposed, and we do not wish to impose, communism on anybody."

EX-KAISER'S SISTER DIES IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Duchess Charlotte, eldest sister of the former Kaiser, who was named as one of the spectators at a prizefight and whom Maximilian Harden sought to call as a witness in the libel suit brought against him by Count von Moltke, is dead.

Duchess Charlotte, who was fifty-nine years old, died at Baden-Baden. She was married to the then heir to the throne of Saxony-Koening in 1875. A daughter, the former Princess of Reuss, survives her.

Duchess Charlotte figured prominently in the German newspapers in 1912, when a boxing promoter, appealing against the decision of the Berlin chief of police, who had forbidden a prizefight under his auspices, declared that the Prussian royalty had been among the spectators at the fight between Carpenter and Sullivan at Monte Carlo.

In 1907 Maximilian Harden claimed she had been the person who supplied him with information regarding the Eulenburg disclosures to the Kaiser, but the court declined to summon her.

Don't let careless expenditure make a slave of your purse. Buy wisely, and increase your money holdings by investing in W. S. S.
